The Disciple's Guide to Sharing Christ March 11th-13th, 2017

(John 4:5–30) ⁵ So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph. ⁶ Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. ⁷ When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?" ⁸ (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.) ⁹ The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.) ¹⁰ Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." ¹¹ "Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water?" ¹² Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his flocks and herds?" ¹³ Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, ¹⁴ but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." ¹⁵ The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water." ¹⁶ He told her, "Go, call your husband and come back." ¹⁷ "I have no husband," she replied. Jesus said to her, "You are right when you say you have no husband. ¹⁸ The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true." ¹⁹ "Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet. ²⁰ Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem." ²¹ Jesus declared, "Believe me, woman, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²² You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³ Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. ²⁴ God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth." ²⁵ The woman said, "I know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us." ²⁶ Then Jesus declared, "I who speak to you am he." ²⁷ Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?" ²⁸ Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, ²⁹ "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Christ?" ³⁰ They came out of the town and made their way toward him.

1. Think of a time when you let an opportunity to share Christ get away from you. What happened? Why? If you had it to do over again, what would you do differently?

2. How did Jesus take an everyday need/situation and turn it into a spiritual conversation? How might you do the same thing when talking about: healthcare, the economy, education, unemployment, a friend's funeral?
3. Explain why it's important in a conversation about spiritual matters to go beyond talking about the troubles and challenges of everyday life and focus, instead, on the root cause of those troubles and challenges.
4. When it comes to talking about sin, share some thoughts about how you can "speak the truth in love."
5. How do people try to deflect the truth about sin and guilt? Why are their efforts useless? How can you use this knowledge in a spiritual conversation?
6. Agree or disagree and why? Any conversation about spiritual matters will end up in a spiritual debate.
7. Point three of The Disciples Guide to Sharing Christ is "Stay on message." Summarize in simple terms the gospel message about Jesus. Share your summary with someone close to you.
8. What's your role in sharing Christ? What's God's role? Why is it so important to remember this?
9. How did the woman in our text share Christ? How can you do the same thing? With whom will you do this?
