On the Road to Damascus

May 4-6, 2019

Acts 9:1-19) Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord's disciples. He went to the high priest {2} and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. {3} As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. {4} He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" {5} "Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," he replied. {6} "Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do." {7} The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound but did not see anyone. {8} Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus. {9} For three days he was blind, and did not eat or drink anything. {10} In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision, "Ananias!" "Yes, Lord," he answered. {11} The Lord told him, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. {12} In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight." {13} "Lord," Ananias answered, "I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. {14} And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on your name." {15} But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! This man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel. {16} I will show him how much he must suffer for my name." {17} Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on Saul, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord--Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here--has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit." {18} Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized, {19} and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

For the Kids: What do you think Jesus taught Saul on the road to Damascus?

1. Do you require corrective measures (e.g. glasses, contacts, surgery) to see clearly? Name one thing/situation that you have especially appreciated being able to see clearly.
2. Did Saul actually see the resurrected Jesus on the road to Damascus (or only a bright light)? (cf. 1 Cor. 9:1; 15:8)
3. Why do you think that Saul was so opposed to Jesus and his followers? (Give at least three reasons.)
4. Agree/disagree: Saul did not hate Christ; he hated Christians.
5. In what way did Ananias' actions (v.11-19) require faith, not reason?
6. Agree/disagree: According to v. 16, God would cause Saul to suffer for his persecution of Christians.
7. Where do you fit in this story? (In what way are you like Saul? Ananias? Saul's companions?)
8. The most powerful thing that Jesus showed to Saul (and you) is God's grace. Explain.
9. How did Saul's past (including this event) equip Saul for what the Lord had in mind for him to do? (cf. 1 Timothy 1:12-17)
